BIG CONCENTRATION OF GERMAN TROOPS TAKING PLACE ON RIGHT BANK OF RHINE

Increased Activity On The Western Front

PARIS, OCT. 9 (REUTER).—A VERY LARGE GERMAN CONCENTRATION IS TAKING PLACE ON THE RIGHT BANK OF THE RHINE FROM LAKE CONSTANCE TO BASLE, ACCORDING TO THE CORRESPONDENT OF "LE MATIN" ON THE SWISS FRONTIER.

THE WRITER ADDS THAT THE TROOPS WILL PROBABLY SERVE IN SUPPORT OF THE OFFENSIVE ALONG THE RHINE FROM BASLE TO STRASBOURG WHICH WILL NOT TAKE PLACE UNTIL GERMANY KNOWS DEFINITELY THE RESULT OF THE PEACE OFFENSIVE.

Meanwhile, the population of all German villages 16 miles behind the right bank of the Rhine are being evacuated.

Japanese Commodity Prices Rising

CHUNGKING, Oct. 9 (Int'l).—According to Tass reports from Tokyo, commodity prices in Japan are still rising. The prices of rice, vegetables and fruits increased 4.4 per cent, and those of fish 11.9 per cent, during the period between August and September.

The "Miyako Shimbun" reported that the limitation of coal supply in factories are to be introduced in the Osaka industrial area.

Owing to meat shortage in Tokyo, the metropolitan authorities have reached the decision that butcher shops be closed for five days.

ARTISTS NOW EMPLOYED AS CAMOUFLAGERS

PARIS, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—Artists and professional photographers who are not on active service are now employed by the Ministry of Fine Arts as camouflagers.

Some of the best artists during the last war helped at a similar task painting scenery and pictures of villages on metal screens.

SPECIAL MISSION TO MOSCOW

HELSINKI, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—The Finnish Government is sending a former Premier to Moscow on a special mission at the invitation of Russia.

The Government refused to send its Foreign Minister, contending that the country is a Northern European State and not a small Baltic one.

Critical Shortage Of Petrol In Germany

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—The United States Commercial Attaché in Berlin, in a report to the Department of Commerce, stated that there is a critical shortage of petrol in Germany for mechanical forces and needs urgent importations.

The Attaché doubts whether Russia would be able to supply Germany with her needs and Germany has been dissatisfied with previous Russian exports owing to adulteration of better grades with inferior ones.

Germany cannot purchase for cash from other countries as she has little foreign currency.

Increased German activity on the Western Front is noticed, writes Charles Morice in "Petit Parisien."

He says that in the past 24 hours the Germans have unceasingly sent out patrols which are very enterprising in all sectors. No sooner was one patrol repulsed than another appeared but there has been no modification of the French lines.

The writer thinks that the activity may foreshadow a German offensive in the region north of Thionville and believes that the enemy would like to announce as soon as possible that their armies have set foot in Lorraine.

The writer adds that such an attack would set the whole front afire and the German operation would degenerate into a general battle between two lines of fortresses.

PATROL ACTIVITIES

PARIS, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—A communiqué states that "towards midnight and during Sunday night there were patrol activities on either side of the valley of the Lower Nied and south Saarbrücken."

U.S. Seaman Lost From Destroyer

SHANGHAI, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—A brief message received in Shanghai states that an American seaman (torpedo man) of the U.S.S. Pearly was lost overboard while the destroyer was travelling through very rough weather en route from Shanghai to Manila. There are no details at present.

TRAIN CRASH

BERLIN, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—Twenty were killed when an express train crashed into a slowing goods train in Berlin last night.

Twenty-eight years ago today, DR. SUN YAT-SEN, founder of the Kuomintang, was proclaimed first President of the Republic of China

No Opportunity Offered For Third Party Mediation In Fuehrer's Speech

With cordial greetings to our Chinese readers the "Hongkong Daily Press," established in 1857, offers its congratulations on the occasion of the 82nd Anniversary of the Republic of China.

RED ARMY TO ENTER ESTHONIA

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—Soviet troops will enter Estonia to-day or to-morrow, states the Stockholm correspondent of "Politics." Red Army detachments will enter Narva while other troops will cross into Pihkova. It is added.

Estonian troops will line the route to prevent incidents. Eight thousand Soviet troops will go to Hapsala, on the north-west coast, 8,000 to Kuressaare on Oesel Island, 4,000 to Port Baltiski and 1,000 to Dagö Island.

A Reuter despatch received on Sunday spoke of "a little nest-egg of 2900 kept in foreign banks by Herr Hammer, Chief of the Gestapo." We now understand that the original cable from London spoke of 2900,000.

LONDON, Oct. 9 (BWS).—Authoritative replies to Herr Hitler's Reichstag speech will be delivered in speeches by Mr. Chamberlain and M. Daladier within the next few days.

Meanwhile, opinion in both Britain and France and in the Dominions, whose Governments are in consultation with the United Kingdom Government, as expressed through the press and in public speeches has condemned out of hand proposals unsupported by adequate guarantees.

The reception of the speech in neutral countries has been scarcely less chilling. Nowhere is there a sign that any neutral country will take the initiative offered by the Fuehrer.

Signor Mussolini, in a recent speech, made no reference to Hitler's plan. Japan has denounced it. Sovereigns of Holland and Belgium decline to intervene. In the United States, Senator Key Pittman in declaring that President Roosevelt may make another effort for peace, adds significantly, "but not until the spirit of adjustment is manifest."

Newspapers in these and other neutral countries reveal recognition of the fact that the speech offers no opportunity for mediation by a third party.

FUTILE TERMS

Commenting on the trend of neutral opinion the "Daily Telegraph" says: "Everywhere outside the frontiers of Nazi rule Hitler's terms are seen to be futile."

"The Times," after noting that the speech included several proposals in themselves unexceptionable says: "The long record of Hitler's broken pledges has proved to all the world that neither his broken word nor his signature to a treaty has the slightest value. In these circumstances no proposals he might make could lead to negotiation unless they were accompanied by tangible guarantees that what he contracted to do would, in fact, be carried out."

No such guarantees were offered on Friday—it has been widely maintained in the United States.

SOVIET ON HITLER'S PROPOSALS

MOSCOW, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—The first Soviet comment on Herr Hitler's Reichstag speech appears in the "Izvestia" which declares: "Hitler's proposals may be accepted, declined or corrected in one way or another, but one cannot help admitting that in any case they can serve as a real practical base for negotiations for an early conclusion for peace."

"Following upon the dissolution of the Polish State that is no longer any justification for continuation of the war."

Mr. T. V. Soops, former Minister of Finance and president of the Bank of Canton, returned from Chungking by air during the week-end.

CHINESE VICTORY AT CHANGSHA SYMBOLIZES NATIONAL SPIRIT OF REVOLUTION—CHIANG

Degenerating Quality Of Japan's Fighting Strength

CHANGSHA, OCT. 9 (CENTRAL).—GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS HIGHLY PLEASED WITH THE BRILLIANT CHINESE VICTORY IN THE BATTLE OF CHANGSHA AND HAS ORDERED A CASH REWARD OF $150,000 FOR THE OFFICERS AND MEN AT THE FRONT.

The Generalissimo was particularly pleased over the fact that the victory was scored before the Double Tenth, China's National Day, as it symbolizes China's national spirit of revolution and rejuvenation.

A competent military observer, commenting on the Chinese success, voiced the opinion that it clearly demonstrates the superior strategy of the defence forces over the invaders.

Throughout the Japanese drive on Changsha, since their crossing of the Sinsiang River, in the latter part of September, he revealed, the Japanese strategy as well as their day-to-day regional tactics, was almost always foisted by the Chinese command.

JAPANESE FAILURE

The Japanese failure, also demonstrates the degenerating quality of their fighting strength, which is now much weaker than before their entry into Wuhan, the observer pointed out. Of the total Japanese force participating in the Changsha drive, no less than three divisions were newly trained and organized troops.

The observer prophesied that with this crushing blow, Japanese military activities will probably be ceased for a while, enabling the Chinese to further solidify their positions.

SEVEN DIVISIONS

The observer recalled that the total Japanese force thrown into the Changsha drive was about seven divisions, which were thinly spread over a line of 200 miles from the east bank of the Tungting Lake to the Chin River in north Kiangsi, traversing the Miao and Kiating ranges, and interspersed by numerous difficult hilly positions. Communications with the rear was difficult and contact between different units was never close.

The Japanese strategy, as always, was to outflank the Chinese forces with a dangerous sweep. The thin, long flank, however, was soon broken up into numerous disconnected sectors and each routed or wiped out by Chinese operations.

CHINESE APPROACH

CHANGSHA, Oct. 9 (Central).—Latest field despatches report that

Toy Pistols Produced In Robbery Attempt

An attempted robbery took place at Shek Kip Mei Street, Shamshingpo, shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning, when three robbers, armed with toy pistols, failed to silence the inmates of the house.

After following the amah who had returned from the market, two of the robbers succeeded in gaining admittance to the first floor of No. 49, Shek Kip Mei Street.

The other men kept watch on the staircase. The two then produced the toy pistols and held up the inmates. When another occupant saw this, she immediately ran down the stairs of No. 47 and raised the alarm.

The robbers then took to their heels and nothing was stolen.

As a result of Chinese victories in North Hunan, Chinese government bonds are rising. These successes accelerated the movement of "offer gold" to the nation and contribution of winter clothing to the troops at the front. (International)

DAVIS CUP TO STAY IN AMERICA?

It is unlikely that the Australian team will bring the Davis Cup to Australia. They do not wish to risk it on the high seas while a state of war exists.

The final decision, however, rests with the tennis associations of America and Australia. When Australasia—represented by Sir Norman Brookes (A.) and Anthony Wilding (N.Z.)—won the cup at the outbreak of war in 1914, the 2700 trophy was left in safe keeping in New York.

CHAMPIONS BEAT THE CLOCK

Unknown Bowler Gets Leicester Out

J. Johnson, a left-arm slow bowler from Scarborough, who was brought into the side at the eleventh hour when Bowes was found to be unfit, took five wickets for 16 runs, and played a big part in Yorkshire's victory over Leicestershire by 97 runs at Leicester recently.

It was a great day for Johnson, who enjoyed his first real success in county cricket. When Yorkshire declared Leicestershire wanted 201 in three hours.

Armstrong concentrated on defence, but Johnson completely beat him and bowled him, and in the same over he dismissed Dawkes who fell to a splendid catch at deep square-leg.

Johnson finished the catch by capturing the last three wickets in the final over without conceding a run, his victims being Pickie, Drake, and Sperry.

Yorkshire were always fighting against the clock, for in addition to the loss of a whole day's play, only 25 minutes' cricket was possible before lunch. After the interval Mitchell and Hutson forced the play to the extent of 60 runs in half an hour, and when Wood was bowled after hitting up 36 quickly, Sellers declared.

Packie, the Leicestershire captain, alone faced Yorkshire confidently, he stood little chance of saving his side after the first three wickets had fallen for 13 runs.

The Army Children's Schools Swimming Sports will be held at the U.S.R.C. Swimming Pool on Friday at 3 p.m.

Yankees Make Baseball History: World Series Won For 4th Time

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (Reuters).—The New York Yankees won the World Baseball Series yesterday by beating the Cincinnati Reds by seven runs to four after ten innings.

The Yankees won the first three matches.

The following were the scores:
New York ..... 7 7 1
Cincinnati ..... 4 11 4

REDS LEAD

Cincinnati led 4-2 at the end of the eighth innings, but the Yankees broke down their defence and scored 5 runs in the ninth.

Derringer started pitching for the Reds and held the Yankees scoreless for six innings, allowing only one homer.

Homers by Keller and Dickey gave the Yankees 2 runs in the seventh innings, but the Reds fought back and took the lead at 3-2.

WEIRD PLAY

At the end of this innings, the Reds improved their advantage with another run in the eighth, but the Yankees, taking advantage of errors made by the Reds, tied the score in the ninth innings and then clinched the series in the extra innings by one of the most weird plays on the books.

Dinaglio hit a single to right field, where Goodman, let the ball go through him, scoring for Crosetti from third base.

Goodman's throw to the home-plate was dropped by Lombardi, letting in Keller.

Then, while Lombardi was being on the ground, three feet from the ball, Dinaglio raced home.

The Yankees, by their victory, have won four series in succession, a feat never accomplished in baseball history.

ADDER BITES BOY

Jack Gladwell, aged 16, was bitten by an adder when walking on the Sussex Downs above his home in North-street, Portlady.

He went to the Hove General Hospital, where a supply of anti-snake serum is kept. This was given within about an hour of the bite.

To celebrate their victory in the recent Hongkong University Inter-House Swimming Championships, members of Morrison Hall held a dance in the Great Hall last night.

HOW THE STARS LEARN THEIR DIALOGUE

Mickey Rooney, face upturned, eyes closed and lips moving, stopped short. A second later he was off again, pacing the floor and "cracking his knuckles."

Mickey wasn't getting silly, just getting into what he calls "the dramatic groove." He was learning dialogue for a forthcoming picture.

Rooney always sort of "lets himself go" when memorizing lines. He, as do many actors, finds concentrating much easier when giving vent to spur-of-the-moment activity.

JUDY GARLAND
Another who just can't sit down when learning lines is Judy Garland. She sets her script on a table and walks around it, saying the dialogue to herself. When she forgets, she runs a finger down the script to the forgotten phrase to refresh her memory.

Blowing cigarette smoke rings as he walks in slow deliberate circles around pieces of furniture is Charles Winninger's pet "routine" when learning the script.

ED. ROBINSON
Edward G. Robinson always manages to find a pin with which to puncture innumerable holes in an unsmoked cigar, while he's memorizing dialogue.

Propping his feet on a table and breaking match sticks is the Robert Young system for learning dialogue.

Guy Kibbee learns his lines by having someone read and re-read them aloud, a paragraph at a time.

After hearing the dialogue three or four times, he usually has it memorized.

With slight variation, Nat Pendleton uses the same system. He reads his lines aloud to a home recording machine. Then he sits in bed and listens to the records until he has the lines down pat.

MORE LASTING
June Preisler learns her lines best by first writing them in long-hand. This helps make a more lasting impression on her, she says.

The best time for concentrating is in bed, just before falling asleep, believes Lew Ayres. "The lines seem to stick in my mind better after sleeping on them all night," he says.

Melvin Douglas finds a deserted corner on the sound stage, and proceeds to walk up and down in a straight line to absorb his dialogue. He often finds gesticulating with his hands a help.

FREDDIE BARTHOLOMEW
The only time to study dialogue is while lying on the floor, says Freddie Bartholomew, who has always practised this method with good results.

Frank Morgan never reads his lines more than once. He doesn't try to get them later perfect, just the general idea.

"When doing a scene I generally act it," he laughs.

CURRENT FILMS

KINGS—The Four Feathers (United Artists). Alexander Korda presentation of A. E. W. Mason's story of a man branded as a coward and doing in excellent technicolour. With Ralph Richardson, John Clements and June Duprez.

QUEEN'S AND ALHAMBRA—Way Down South (RKO). Bobby Breen and some seasoned actors, including Alan Mowbray, Ralph Morgan, Stem Duna, and Sally Blane in a picture of the old South. Not as great as "Show Boat" but enjoyable if you like Bobby.

ORIENTAL—Captain Fury (United Artists). Brian Aherne as a convict Robin Hood in pioneer Australia. His performance and the comedy of Victor McLaglen are the best things in a conventional setting and good production.

CATHAY—The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle (RKO). Real romance of a famous dancing team. Charming and gay. Enacted by Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. Not much excitement, but interesting.

MAJESTIC—Wuthering Heights (United Artists). Stark drama of thwarted love and family hatred, adapted faithfully from Emily Brontë's powerful novel. Very good acting and good Yorkshire atmosphere are the main attractions of a film that, despite a few poor moments, has a vigorous, sombre appeal.

STAR—Let Freedom Ring (MGM). Strong drama of settlers' fight for rights, with Nelson Eddy singing and battling. Virginia Bruce, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold and Victor McLaglen are also in.

"Wuthering Heights" Opens At Majestic To-day

With Merle Oberon and Laurence Olivier heading a cast of prominent players, Samuel Goldwyn's most important and most outstanding production to date, "Wuthering Heights," opens to-day at the Majestic Theatre.

"Wuthering Heights," based on the great love story of the Emily Brontë novel of the same name, was made from a brilliant screenplay written jointly by two of Hollywood's foremost scenarists, Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur.

In addition, the new picture has the advantage of direction by that skillful craftsman, William Wyler who has previously given the world of entertainment such unusual pictures as "Dead End," "These Three," "Dodsworth" and "Jezebel." "Wuthering Heights" is unquestionably his greatest directorial job to date.

MR. "REX" LEEPER

The appointment of Mr. R. W. A. Leeper, 51-years-old Australian, as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Bucharest is announced.

Mr. "Rex" Leeper, as he is known, has been a Counsellor of the Foreign Office since 1933, and head of the news department for some years.

He recently assisted Lord Perth in the shadow arrangements for a British information department.

WOMEN IN TROUSERS BANNED BY VICAR

The Rev. F. E. Coryton, vicar of St. John's Weymouth, will not allow women in trousers to attend services at his church.

He said: "If a trousered woman comes to one of my services I shall ask her to leave."

Seven years ago Mr. Coryton led a campaign against beach pyjamas. He says:

"Matters have gone a good deal further since beach pyjamas appeared and I denounced them in a sermon."

"The trouble is that when an evil becomes popular it becomes permanent; I believe that the last step in the degradation of a nation before it is overtaken by calamity is immodesty and indelicacy in women."

Mr. John. Counsell and his bride of three weeks, Miss Mary Kerridge, leading man and leading lady of the Windsor Repertory Company, were involved in a crash near Aix-les-Bains while driving home from their honeymoon. Mrs. Counsell, thrown from the car, was bruised; her husband was unhurt.

Suspended by the Shanghai Municipal Council for three weeks, the "Chinese-American Daily News" resumed publication on Monday, states a Shanghai message. No reason was given by the S.M.C. for the suspension.

How To Stop Stomach Pain In Five Minutes

By Dr. Scott, M.D., Paris.

If you want an astonishing demonstration of how quickly and completely acute indigestion can be stopped, just take a level teaspoonful of "Bismarck" Magnesia in water—four tablets are equally effective. I have found that the moment "Bismarck" Magnesia reaches the stomach you feel the pain abate; flatulence is relieved, heartburn and sourness pass off, the feelings of weight and oppression are lifted and in five minutes the pain has disappeared. You can get "Bismarck" Magnesia from all Chemists and Stores. I advise you to get some and try it after your next meal.

FOOT ITCH ATHLETE'S FOOT

According to the Government Health Bulletin No. 2-28, at least 5% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form and the skin cracks and peels. After a while the itching becomes intense and you feel as though you would like to scratch off all the skin.

Beware of It Spreading

Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse. You should get rid of this disease as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crease of the neck.

Most people who have Athlete's Foot have tried all kinds of remedies to cure it without success. Ordinary remedies, antiseptics, salve or ointments, seldom do any good.

Here's How to Treat It

The germ that causes the disease is known as Trichophyton. It is a very hardy little germ. It lives in the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 25 minutes of boiling to kill the germ, so you can see why the ordinary remedy diet are unsuccessful.

If you want to get rid of the germ for the purpose of treating Athlete's Foot, it is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the infected parts. It peels off the scales of the skin where the germ breeds.

Itching Stops Immediately

As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time. If you will use the skin soles and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief; especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

Obtainable at all Drug Stores.

SIX AND EIGHTPENCE

"Mercedith, I want to make my will. My fox-head scarf-pin to my Uncle Philip, unless he remarries. My collection of film stars' portraits, autographed, I leave to the Museum. To my faithful butler, Albert Hawkins, the contents of my cellar."

"But, Lord Henry, isn't this rather sudden? It was only last night that I chanced to catch sight of you in Regent Street on the roof of a taxi-cab, summing up a fanfare on what appeared to be a hunting-horn."

"Don't remind me of it, Mercedith. If you only knew how I feel. Not a morsel of food has passed my lips since a brace of devilled bones at three a.m."

"I am indeed sorry to hear that."

NEW C.I.C. CENTRE CLOSE TO OCCUPIED AREAS

CHUNGKING, Oct. 9 (Central)—The Chinese Industrial Co-operatives has established a new centre, this time close to the Japanese-occupied areas. More than 40 students in a special class on the Chekiang-Kiangsi border are being trained as a staff to man the increasing number of co-operatives in the two provinces.

Organizers sent from the C. I. C. headquarters in Chungking early this spring arrived in the town in question and set up a few tailoring and leather belt-making units, more for publicity purposes than for anything else. This at once aroused the interest of the local populace, and was followed by a more vigorous drive. To date co-operatives there are making dry cells, silk thread, lacquerware, and polishing rice.

REAL DIFFICULTIES

Among those scheduled to begin work soon are a printing shop, several iron-works and machine-repairing units. Here, however, the real difficulties begin. There are no machine-works which can build small sets of productive machines for the co-operatives, and raw materials, chemicals and skilled workers are lacking.

The organization of a large number of decentralized industrial units capable of making daily necessities is considered imperative in view of the large amount of Japanese goods that has been filtering through the Chinese lines. The principal items have been cloth, soap, cigarettes, sugar and glassware. In most cases the Japanese goods are disguised under Chinese names. In one outrageous instance, Japanese towels bear the New Life Movement trademark.

EXTENSION INTENDED

As soon as the C. I. C. foundation work is completed, extension work will be carried into other districts. Sometime ago, special investigators were sent to various other places to study the possibilities, the supply of raw materials and the number of trained workmen available. The last step will be to cross the Yangtze to the northern parts of Anhwei to set up co-operatives behind the Japanese line.

U.S. MINISTER TO CANADA RESIGNS

The resignation of Mr. Daniel C. Roper from the post of United States Minister to Canada has been announced.

Mr. Roper, who is 72, was appointed Minister to Canada in May, and personally presented his credentials to the King during the royal tour.

He described the King as a man with a "vitalising conception of service," and the Queen as a "beautiful pattern to women."

S'hai - Bound Train Strikes Mine

GUERRILLA ACTIVITY IN THE NORTH

CHUNGKING, Oct. 9 (Central)—A Shanghai-bound train from Hangchow struck a mine laid by Chinese guerrillas between Shashih and Changan on Saturday. The locomotive and four coaches were overturned.

Chinese guerrillas lying in ambush near the railway swooped down on the Japanese guards and slew many of them. It is reported that several Japanese and puppet officials in the train were either killed or wounded during the fighting.

Chinese mobile units and regulars who recently crossed the Chentung River launched an attack on Kashing, on the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway near the Kiangsu border, a few days ago. They succeeded in pushing the Japanese inside the wall, but later retired upon the arrival of heavy Japanese reinforcements.

Convicted On Amended Charge

SEQUEL TO ARMY LORRY MISHAP

Pte. Leslie Landsell, 23, of the Middlesex Regiment, who appeared before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday charged with driving without due care and caution, was convicted on an amended charge of negligent driving and was fined $75.

The case was the sequel to an accident which occurred in Repulse Bay Road on September 4, when an army lorry which he was driving crashed into a low wall and fell over the embankment. As a result of the mishap a passenger, Pte. Stephens, was killed.

The defendant, at the previous hearing, claimed that the steering wheel was defective.

Evidence was called yesterday deposing that the vehicle was in good order.

Mr. Forrest, finding the defendant guilty on the amended charge, said that there was no actual witness of the accident. The charge was that of dangerous driving, but a person could not be guilty of such charge unless he showed a reckless disregard for his safety.

Uncensored Letters

PUBLIC WARNED BY MAGISTRATE

"This country is at war. Sending out communications or letters, other than through the post where they could be censored, is a very dangerous thing. Ordinarily we don't mind about them. Next time, I shall impose very heavy fines."

These remarks were made by Mr. T. J. Houston, at the Central Court yesterday, when a fisherman appeared on a charge of a breach of the Defence Regulation by sending out letters which had not been censored, and a man and a woman, owners of the letters, were charged with aiding and abetting the offence.

NO MORE LENIENCY

Mr. Houston requested that due publicity be given in the case as a warning to the public, saying that it would be the last time he would show leniency.

The man was Tam Tak-chat, a fisherman. As a result of a casual search by police, three letters were found on his person which he intended to take away from the Colony for delivery. He pleaded guilty and was fined $40.

The owners of two of the three letters, a woman, and Cheung Chiu-kam, were each fined $2. The owner of the third letter could not be found.

The correspondence had been read and translated into English by the police, and was found to have nothing incriminating. They were returned to the defendants, Inspector W. Mair prosecuted.

The inward week-end service of Imperial Airways arrived from Bangkok yesterday at 5 p.m.

Captain Joe Davies was in command of the R. M. A. Della which delivered 128 kilos of mail from all Empire ports to the Colony, and brought five passengers: Captain L. J. M. White, First Officer R. Harvey, Mr. J. Robinson, Mr. C. Clarke and Mr. C. R. Hargreaves.

EUROPEAN SEAMEN GAOLED

Two European seamen, Thomas Henry Berry, 21, carpenter, and Alexander Minnis, 35, donkeyman, were each sentenced to 14 days' imprisonment by Hon. Commander G. F. Hole at the Marine Court yesterday morning for wilfully remaining in the Colony after the departure of their R.F.A. ship.

Mr. W. R. Hillier, Deputy Shipping Master, prosecuted, and stated that the ship was held up for more than 15 hours because the members of the crew had not returned.

First defendant gave himself up an hour after the ship had sailed and second defendant did not report himself until 9.30 a.m. yesterday morning.

Commander Hole remarked that at times like this, it was expected of every Briton that he pull his weight.

$500 DAMAGES AWARDED

Women In Action For Libel

Damages to the extent of $500 and costs were awarded by Mr. Justice Lindsay in the Summary Court yesterday to Josephine Koo, of No. 23 Lion Rock Road, second floor, in a suit brought against Gabriella Wu, of No. 90 Saikung Road, first floor, for $1,000 damages for libel.

Mr. M. A. da Silva, acting for plaintiff, said the case against defendant was that she had libelled the plaintiff in a letter written to a friend in Singapore. The libel consisted of two parts: firstly, allegations of unchastity; and, secondly, allegations that plaintiff suffered from a venereal disease.

Gabriella Wu said, in evidence, that she was a native of Suifu district, but was born in Peru. She had been in Hongkong about four years and had known plaintiff about eight or nine years.

In answer to His Lordship, witness said that the man named Frans, to whom she had written the letter, was an officer on board a Dutch ship. He was plaintiff's sweetheart, and was introduced to her by plaintiff last year. Frans and herself were friends, and no more, she said.

TALKED A LOT

Concerning a letter which Frans had written to her inquiring about trouble between witness and plaintiff, witness said the trouble arose because plaintiff talked a lot about her and also wrote to Frans. Plaintiff said witness accused her of not being a virgin.

"What has that got to do with Frans?" asked Mr. Justice Lindsay.

"Plaintiff wrote to Frans and said that I had fallen in love with him," said witness. "As a result, Frans wrote to me the letter and asked me many things."

His Lordship: He only asked what was the trouble between you and plaintiff?—All the troubles are contained in the letter I wrote to him.

You quarrelled with plaintiff because you said she was jealous, as you said in your letter. Do you now say she was jealous or not?—Yes.

Why?—Because I'm a pure virgin and she is not. Everybody likes me and does not like her. Including Mr. Frans—I think Mr. Frans should be included.

PROMISCUOUS LOVERS

Witness proceeded to say that plaintiff went about with soldiers and sailors and had promiscuous lovers. Plaintiff, she said, lived with her mother before she became a dancing girl at the Lido Cabaret and brought men to the house.

Witness said that Frans did express his love for her. Later on, she said that this was not so, but that she thought he was in love with her.

After further evidence, His Lordship decided that the onus had clearly not been discharged, and the allegations not substantiated, and awarded plaintiff damages as stated.

At the fifth annual meeting of the Islamic Union held on Sunday, the following were elected to form a committee: Messrs. A. R. H. Samy, A. M. Wahab, A. M. Omar, M. Y. Adal, S. M. Rumsah, A. M. Rumsah, A. R. M. M. Rumsah, M. O. Hussen, I. Haroon, M. U. Rasack, S. R. A. Bux and S. Yusuf.

ABSENTED HIMSELF FROM DUTY

Convicted of misconduct as a police officer in that he had, on August 29, absented himself from the Wanchai Police Station without leave while required on reserve duty, Police Constable Tsang Han, 26, was fined $15 by Mr. C. A. A. Macfadyen, at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

It was alleged also that Tsang and his brother Tsang Ping, 31, a hawker, had participated in a fight stated to have taken place at a brothel in Archer Street, when they were alleged to have assaulted a man named Chung Kam. Proceedings in the case against Tsang Ping will be continued.

BLACK MARKS

Mr. G. S. Wilson, A.S.P., appearing for the Police, requested the Magistrate that a fine be imposed of more than $12.50, as this would mean a maximum number of black marks against the defendant's record in the Force. Mr. Wilson said he believed the defendant would not be dismissed, the force.

Mr. M. A. da Silva appeared for Chung Kam, and Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russ for the defence. Det. Sergt. C. Pope prosecuted.

POSSESSION OF COUNTERFEIT COINS ALLEGED

Appearing before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday charged with the possession of two moulds for the manufacturing of counterfeit coins and 17 counterfeit five-cent pieces, Leung Wah-shum, 29, unemployed, was committed to the Criminal Sessions.

Jointly charged with the same offences, a street coolie, Chan Keng-wah, 22, was discharged, owing to insufficient evidence against him.

The two men were arrested by a district watchman near Wing Wo Street on September 21. Leung was carrying a basket in which the articles were found.

Giving evidence, Leung said that the basket was given to him to carry by a friend. He was told to meet his friend in a teashop where his friend was going to buy a packet of cigarettes.

WOMAN SENT TO SESSIONS ON MURDER CHARGE

STATEMENT FROM THE DOCK

Formal evidence was given by the police at the Central Court yesterday, when Pang Yiu-wai, 40, married woman, appeared before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest on remand on a charge of the murder of her husband's concubine at No. 9, Des Voeux Road, on July 14.

Making her statement from the dock, Pang said that the chopper was used by the concubine to cut medicine herb for her in the morning. On the night in question, she put the chopper on the table ready for the deceased. She said that she could not remember where she got hold of the chopper and chopped the deceased, nor did she know how the chopping was done.

When she learned that she had cut her, she sat on the floor of the cubicle as she heard the commotion and wondered why the people accused her of the crime. "It was really a wicked thing," she said.

Defendant was committed to the Criminal Sessions.

"DOUBLE TENTH"

TO-DAY is the "Double Tenth," the twenty-eighth anniversary of the proclamation of the Chinese Republic in Nanking on October 10, 1911. For two days now, Hongkong, a British Colony has been bedecked with Chinese national flags. Every enterprise operating here, whether British or Chinese, is observing the anniversary as a public holiday.

IT IS NO ACCIDENT that this is the case. Britain has, from the beginning, watched with the deepest sympathy and admiration the growth of Republican China. During his years of struggle against the Manchu tyranny, Dr. Sun Yat-sen spent much time in England and took new heart from the knowledge that thousands of forward-looking men and women there sympathized with his aspirations. Once formed, the Republic quickly won British recognition.

AFTER THE SUCCESS of the Kuomintang anti-militarist expedition, a new era in Anglo-Chinese relations was inaugurated by the Chen-O'Malley Agreement. By this instrument, Britain recognized the National Government. Throughout the succeeding years, co-operation between the two countries increased and deepened. China purchased from England a large part of the materials needed for her national reconstruction, secured British assistance for her currency in its struggle against the encroaching Yen and in many other ways turned the friendship between the two countries into a source of profit for both.

JAPAN'S ATTACK on Shanghai shortly after the occupation of Manchuria showed the Yangtze valley, traditionally a sphere of British enterprise, was not to be immune from her aggressive intentions. The gallant resistance of the Nineteenth Route Army in the port city, on the other hand, made it clear that only a strong China would be able to defend not herself alone, but the whole treaty position in the Far East. The confidence in the National Government manifested at the time of the voluntary rendition of the British concessions in Hankow and Kiukiang and the leased territory of Weihaiwei now expressed itself through active assistance to China in her effort to convert herself into a modern industrial state.

SUCCESSFUL RESISTANCE to the armed Japanese invasion, when it finally came in 1937, once again stressed the unity of interest between China and Britain. Japanese bullets drew the blood not only of tens of thousands of China's fighters, but also of H.M. Ambassador, Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, and of British soldiers determined that the aggressors should not use the sector of the Settlement which they guarded as a base against the Chinese on the Shanghai front.

SIR HUGHES'S TEMPORARY SUBSTITUTE, Mr. R. G. Howe, and his successor, Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, have spent more time in Nanking, Hankow and Chungking than any of their predecessors spent in the National capital. The building of the Burma Road and the plans for a rail-

NEW RADIO DIALS NEXT YEAR

LISTENERS MUST PAY TO CHANGE

Millions of radio sets in Britain will need new dials when the revised Montreux wave-length plan for Europe comes into operation next March. The changes have created a far more difficult problem for manufacturers than the previous reshuffle in 1934, writes a Home correspondent.

At that time, when the Lucerne plan was applied, manufacturers had not generally adopted the practice of putting station names on receiver dials. Now practically every receiver sold has names on the tuning scale.

The opening of the Radio Exhibition recently had created a further problem. Sets were shown at the exhibition with tuning scales that must be changed in six months' time. A sub-committee of the Radio Manufacturers' Association has been considering the whole question and has made a number of recommendations to members.

NO FREE FITTING

It is proposed that no new scales shall be supplied by manufacturers before Jan. 1, 1940, and that no manufacturer shall offer free fitting of replacement scales.

As regards press-button sets, it is recommended that manufacturers should fix charges to be made by their dealers, or could leave dealers free to make any charges they desired.

It was agreed that sets exhibited this autumn at Radiolympia must be fitted with "old" scales, but that purchasers should be supplied with a new scale at the nominal charge of half a crown, fitting extra. The majority of manufacturers were against the provision of new scales for sets bought before 1937.

Other recommendations made were that there should be a charge of 4s. for new scales for sets sold between the 1938 and 1939 exhibitions, and a charge of 5s. 6d. for sets sold between the 1937 and 1938 exhibitions.

The manufacturers are not, of course, themselves responsible for the wave-length changes, which were made by the representatives of the various European broadcasting organisations, including the B.B.C., at a conference convened by the International Broadcasting Union.

WOMAN FOUND DYING

A Chinese woman, about 30 years of age, was removed to the Kowloon Hospital yesterday, in a dying condition. She was found in So Kun Wat Village, suffering from head injuries, believed to have been caused by a motor vehicle.

way further stress British determination to keep in touch with Free China.

IN ENGLAND itself, there has been something of a tug of war between the false "realists" who see only the Japanese domination of the coast, and those other, truer realists, who have insisted that policy be based on China's will to resist until victory is gained.

IT IS THIS LATTER SENTIMENT which is maintained by the British nation as a whole. Admiration for China's fight, realization that Britain's and China's interests are common, and firm faith that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek will lead China to victory in war and success in reconstruction are universal in Great Britain.

TO-DAY, on the twenty eighth anniversary of the foundation of the Chinese Republic, we re-affirm what we have always firmly believed—that after the storm clouds all over the world have passed and all aggressors have gone to their well-deserved doom, China, a nation of 450,000,000 free men and women, will emerge as one of the great democratic Powers of the earth, a friend worth having and a justification of the hope and confidence reposed in her steadfast fight by men of goodwill in every part of the globe.

REQUIREMENTS FOR POSSIBLE EMERGENCY OUTLINED BY D.M.S.

Three Dispensers' Appeals Are Dismissed

Remarking that he had not been given the opportunity of putting the requirements of the Civil Medical Defence Scheme before the Compulsory Service Tribunal, Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, Director of Medical Services, briefly outlined his requirements for a possible emergency when he was heard by the Compulsory Service Appeals Tribunal in the Supreme Court yesterday in connexion with the appeals of three dispensers for transfer from the Combatant Group (medical) to the Essential Services Group (medical).

The Appeals Tribunal was composed of the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor (chairman), Brigadier A. B. Thomson and the Hon. Mr. Stanley H. Dodwell, and the dispensers whose appeals were heard were Messrs. Wesley Thom, E. B. David and H. S. Clayton.

Mr. Thom stated that he was a qualified dispenser and as he knew Chinese he felt he would work better among Chinese where his knowledge of the language would be useful.

Mr. H. S. Clayton said that he was formerly a demonstrator at the University and as he knew most of the civilian doctors he felt he could work better with the Civilian Group, while Mr. David stated that he was gaining valuable experience with a firm of wholesale chemists and he felt that he would be more useful in civil medical work.

CONSIDERABLE INCREASE Dr. Selwyn-Clarke said that a possible emergency would necessitate a considerable increase in hospital and other facilities for the treatment of the sick. Most of the private medical practitioners would be mobilised for various services, and civilians who normally went to such doctors for treatment would call on the Civil Medical Service for treatment.

He said there were two main types of patients to be catered for (a) casualties from action and (b) the ordinary sick. In his estimation they would need a minimum of 49 qualified dispensers, so far, they only had only 23—less than half the required number. Dispensers take three to four years to train.

DUTIES RESTRICTED He submitted that the three men whose appeals were being heard had been acting in civil life as chemists, dealing with prescriptions for ordinary sick, including women and children. In military hospitals there would be only male patients requiring attention and their duties will be restricted to a particular type of work.

Dr. Selwyn-Clarke said that he had had experience from 1914 to 1919 as a captain in the R. A. M. C. and his experience covered field and hospitals most of the dispen-

WHAT TO DO WITH £30,000

Mrs. Mary Smith, of Clougher, County Tyrone, already has everything she wants. And now she has been left £30,000 by her half-brother, Mr. Robert Bromm, a New York rail-road magnate, whom she last saw more than fifty years ago.

Her problem is—what to do with it. She is 84, grey-haired, and frail, the wife and mother of solicitors.

"I always knew I would get the money," she said. "I came to Ireland from America when I was a girl and got married. But I've been back there from time to time. I was very, very fond of Robert, and I've kept regularly in touch with him by letter. He was a bachelor."

"What will I do with it? really I can't just say at the moment." And she smiled. Mr. Bromm had a luxurious house and grounds at White Plains, New York. Mrs. Smith son, Mr. W. H. Smith, is out there now looking after his mother's interests in the estate.

SIR CLARK KERR

CHUNGKING, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—It is not yet possible to say how long the British Ambassador, Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, will be able to stay in Chungking, though probably a month.

Mr. H. L. Pradeaux, who leads the Diplomatic Mission here, is leaving for Kunming. During his absence, Mr. W. O. Hayter, Second Secretary of the Embassy, will take his post.

work is simplified by having numbers for names of medicines. The Chairman pointed out that military medical work nevertheless needed qualified men.

The Chairman, in dismissing the three appeals said that he was satisfied that the decisions of the Tribunal were fair and equitable and he saw no reason why they should be reversed.

Mr. A. A. Elms, journalist, employed by the "Hongkong Telegraph" was transferred from the Naval Volunteers to the Volunteer Defence Force.

STAMPS IN WAR

MANY NEW ISSUES EXPECTED

The stamp follows the flag. Philatelists in all parts of the world will be preparing already to open up new pages in their albums to receive the special issues of postage stamps that must inevitably spring from the present conflict.

The Great War of 1914-18 brought into philatelic prominence stamps of a category which up to that time had attracted but little attention.

Under the generic title of "War Stamps" they embraced ultimately some thousands of varieties of high historical and philatelic interest, including those issued under military authority by the armies of occupation on both sides, stamps used by army post offices in the field, stamps carrying a surtax in aid of the Red Cross and other war-time charities, war tax stamps denoting additional postage as a contribution to defence funds, and a host of associated emissions, many of them short-lived and consequently acquiring enhanced value in the collectors' mart.

The rarest stamp of modern times is the unique 1 mark issue of the former German colony of Togo provisionally overprinted "Togo—Occupation Franco-Anglaise" now in the Bute Collection.

From whence and in what form the first stamps of the present war will materialize it is early to forecast, but stamp dealers report a growing demand for the postal issues of Poland and Danzig; the latter in the expectation that the distinctive stamps of the Free City will soon be replaced by those of the Third Reich.

WAR RECORD HELPS MOTORIST

Frederick Robert Outhwaite, 41, an engineer, of Warwick-gardens, Kensington, pleaded guilty at Feltham recently to driving a car while under the influence of drink at 9.30 p.m. on Aug. 11 at Great South-West-road, Bedford.

Outhwaite, said Mrs. Lloyd Lane, joined the Navy as a boy. For gallantry at Zeebrugge he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and given command of a submarine chaser. On Aug. 11, 1918, he fought single-handed a battle against four German planes for five hours in the North Sea, until the ship was burned under him and he was taken prisoner. The Bench discharged Outhwaite under the First Offenders Act on payment of £20 costs.

Mr. Henry Scott, 24-years-old barrister, of Rotherwick-road, Golders Green, N.W., lay for five hours in agony after he had fractured both legs and several ribs in a 100ft. cliff fall at Ravenscar, Yorkshire. He was eventually rescued by coastguards in a boat and tended by a doctor during the return journey.

Britain's factories were safer last year. Total accidents fell by 6 per cent, and fatal accidents by 7 per cent. Accidents to young workers—under 18—were 7 per cent, the lowest since 1935.

New Nazi Fortifications On Belgian Frontier

PARIS, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—Activity on the Western Front has increased although there are, as yet, no indications of the Germans planning a major offensive in the near future.

The area southwest of Saarbrücken is the main theatre of activity. There were further attacks by enemy patrols during Saturday night, but these were all repulsed. Otherwise the French and German communiques agree that night was quiet.

The Germans, however, have been sending out patrol after patrol apparently with the intention of sounding out the French lines, particularly south of Saarbrücken.

ARTILLERY ACTIVITY

A French military commentator points out that this has been accompanied by intensified heavy artillery activity, and by manoeuvres in the Vamt Forest and in the Bles area.

Apparently the Germans are trying to find a weak spot in the French lines and this view was strengthened by reports that the Siegfried Line has been lengthened.

Enemy operations have not yet assumed serious proportions and it may be that the Nazis are adopting waiting and watching tactics.

STRANGE SIGHTS BEHIND GERMAN SIEGFRIED LINE

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—The following is a story by "Eye Witness" who is with the Royal Air Force somewhere in France:

From a slim young Flight-Lieutenant, who participated in an amazing survey over the Siegfried Line, in the course of which the planes seldom flew above 100 feet and were only once fired on, I learned of some of the strange things encountered behind the enemy defences.

In the course of their reconnaissance, the airmen took a wonderful series of photographs of the German defence works.

UNFINISHED STATE

"The thing which impressed me most," the Flight-Lieutenant told me, "was the obviously unfinished state of the Siegfried Line. It is absurdly easy to identify, because the grass has not yet had time to grow over the scarred earth."

"In many places we saw mounds of freshly dug earth, but nowhere saw anyone actually at work on the fortifications."

"In one place, we flew over a huge gun, which a group of men were camouflaging. I distinctly saw them gazing at us with paint-pots in their hands, apparently unable to move."

"We passed many villages, but did not see a single civilian inhabitant and the streets were nearly always deserted."

The Flight-Lieutenant, who was unable to account for the fact that the only fire directed against them was from a solitary ordinary machine-gun, cannot offer an explanation for the strange reluctance of the Germans to protect the secrets behind their lines.

The things which mystified him were the series of curious unidentifiable mounds and pits in the fields and woods, strangely large barns, of uniform pattern, on the outskirts of many villages, suspicious looking new buildings and concrete turrets on the outskirts of villages, curious experiments in camouflage and sometimes what might have been complete dummy villages.

All preparations having been completed, the Chengtu Edition of the Central Daily News, official organ of the Central Government, will make its debut in Chengtu to-day, China's National Day. (Central News).

King's Confidence In His Fleet: Impressed By Keen And Cheerful Spirit

H. M. King George VI

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—The Admiralty announces that, after visiting the Fleet, H. M. the King stated: "Having visited representative ships and establishments, I have been much impressed by the keen and cheerful spirit that unites you in the determination to bring the war to a successful conclusion."

"Your task may be long and arduous, but I have every confidence in your ultimate success."

COMMANDER'S REPLY

The Commander-in-Chief of the Home Fleet signalled the following reply on behalf of the officers and men of the Home Fleet and Auxiliaries: "However long and arduous the task may be, they will not swerve from their determination to do their utmost to ensure victory."

AIRMEN DECORATED

While visiting the Fleet, the King went to the Fleet Air Arm Aerodrome and decorated airmen who recently achieved a certain northern sea triumph.

ANOTHER JUNK ROBBERY

FIREWOOD CARGO STOLEN

Cheong Ki-yai, master of junk No. 723771, of Au Tau Village, Bias Bay, in a report to the police, stated that while passing Sou Sea Mun at 11.30 a.m. on September 27, a fishing junk with seven robbers on board, fired three or four shots at his junk and ordered him to lower his sails.

Cheong, with two members of the crew and two passengers, were ordered into the hold and the hatch was covered.

The junk had a cargo of 350 piculs of firewood, valued at $350, and was bound for Hongkong.

TOOK COMMAND

The robbers, three of whom were armed with revolvers, then took command of the junk for over 16 hours, and finally Cheong and his crew were put ashore at an unknown island.

The marauders decamped with the cargo and $85 in Chinese currency.

On October 3, Cheong and his crew were picked up by a passing fishing junk and returned to Hongkong. Cheong's boat, which was abandoned by the robbers, was recovered on Sunday at Leung Shun Wan.

The Burns Laird steamer Royal Ulsterman, from Glasgow, had an engine mishap in Belfast Lough and berthed at 11.25, four hours late. It is understood that an airship burst.

Chamberlain May Reply To Hitler's Speech To -morrow

Consultations With France & Dominions

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—It is thought here that Mr. Chamberlain may give a broad outline of the Government's opinion on Herr Hitler's speech in his weekly review on Wednesday.

This, however, will depend on whether the consultations between Britain, the Dominions and France will be completed by then.

No final reply will be given until Herr Hitler's proposals have been discussed by the House of Commons.

ROME STATEMENT

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Italy has not put forward proposals for ending the war, stated a Rome radio message, but she will give moral support to any move in that direction.

The statement repeated that Italy will not take the military initiative.

MENTAL FRENZY

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The Japanese press sees little hope of Herr Hitler's proposals being accepted and recalls his many broken promises.

The New York press remains very critical.

The "World Telegram" urges President Roosevelt not to accept any call for mediation in Europe.

The "Herald Tribune" says that Herr Hitler's aim is so fantastically wide of any mark as to suggest mental frenzy.

GERMANS NOT TOLD

BERNE, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Germans have not been informed of the British and French reactions to Herr Hitler's speech, reports the "Basler Nachrichten." They believe that peace is imminent.

DIPLOMATIC IMBROGLIO IN TOKYO

PRIVY COUNCIL MAY INTERFERE

TOKYO, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—After day-long conferences, the Japanese Foreign Office mulineers rejected Admiral Nomura's compromise plan and demanded again the unification of political and economic diplomacy.

They submitted a substitute plan, the acceptance of which, however, is doubtful, because it is liable to undermine the Cabinet's decision to create a Trade Ministry.

MEDIATION

The "Asahi Shimbun" says that it is understood that certain senior diplomats may mediate, fearing that the Foreign Office may cease to function, while the "Hochi Shimbun" asserts that the Privy Council is showing a tendency to question the rectitude of the Premier and the Foreign Minister in connexion with the trade Ministry.

The "Kokumin Shimbun" declares that Japanese Embassies, Legations and Consulates throughout the world are cableing encouragement to the mulineers.

Thomas Flowers, showman, of Course-street, Dudlow, was fined £5 at Bournemouth for putting his arms round a girl on a speedway roundabout at Boscombe Carnival. William Stanley White said that when he asked Flowers what he meant by insulting the girl, he replied, "It is the spirit of the carnival."

Armed searches, who for two days had been hunting Thomas Charles Hall, 66-years-old ex-gamekeeper, in the Welsh mountains, found him shot dead in a plantation behind his cottage. Hall was wanted for the murder of 66-years-old Farmer Morris Rowlands and his 35-years-old daughter, Sarah Winifred, in the yard of Ceta Coed, their lonely mountain farm.

Sgt. Morgan, of the R.A.S.C., of Kennedy Road Military Quarters, reported that money and jewellery valued at about $35, was stolen last night.

GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK, Director-General of the Kuomintang, Chairman of the Military Affairs Commission and Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces of the country, leads the Chinese nation in its struggle against Japanese aggression.

Unceasing R.A.F. Activity On Western Front: Bases Cleverly Hidden In Woods

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—"Eye-Witness," writing from somewhere in France, says:

From carefully camouflaged airfields in this secret area of France, the Royal Air Force is carrying out a programme of unceasing activity on the Western Front, although the present stage of the war is one in which there is little concrete news to report in proportion to the work actually done.

With epic feats of skill and daring, the Siegfried Line is being charted to the minutest detail, while dangerous reconnaissance in the vital sector of the enemy's hinterland add daily to the knowledge about the German defence system.

HIDDEN BASES

The Air Force bases are hidden with marvellous skill. The first time I visited one I realised that I had passed through it two days previously without noticing it was there.

For considerable distances along the fringe of the woods, the planes have been pushed back into the trees and camouflaged with a few quickly removable branches so skilfully that they are practically invisible, but, at a minute's notice the planes can be got out and take to the air on whatever mission headquarters orders.

In their leisure moments the men have constructed, near their machines, little thatched huts, some of them quite luxuriously equipped.

An atmosphere of anonymity pervades the dangerous work being carried out and it is only by chance that the details of some heroic exploit ever leak out.

JUST A DAY'S WORK

In the evening the pilots forger in the hotel of a nearby town, when one may meet a man who a few hours previously had been photographing the Siegfried Line from a height of only 100 feet or another who had just returned from shooting down enemy planes in a spectacular air battle; but there is very little talk about it all and it is just taken as part of the day's work, while among the humbler ranks the talk is more of their families at home or the chance of a cigarette ration than of flights in which they had just taken part.

FRENCH ACTIVITY

PARIS, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The French deny the German allegation that two French machines failed to return after activity over Bonn. They state that only one failed to return.

The French postal plane, which made a forced landing in Belgian territory, has been seized and the two occupants interned.

NAZI PLANE SHOT DOWN

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The Air Force reconnaissance aircraft patrolling the North Sea to-day shot down a German Air Force

NEW ORDER IN EUROPE

GAYDA'S VIEWS ON HITLER'S PROPOSALS

ROME, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—"For the sake of European civilisation, Italy invites the great responsible nations to face reality, so that they can withdraw in time from the fatal brink" writes Signor Gayda, discussing Herr Hitler's proposals in the "Voce d'Italia."

He says that the proposals were not confined to the mere suggestion of the suspension of hostilities, but that they aim at planning the construction of a new order in Europe, founded on solidarity of interests.

"It has been said that the proposals were vague, but it will be truer to say that they point the way."

NOT EXHAUSTIVE

"They are not exhaustive, but they do not enter on the final details, which to-day are unnecessary. The elements of the proposals correspond to the very profound causes of the European crisis."

NO PEACE

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The South African Minister of Finance and Education yesterday said that the present threat to all that makes civilisation worthwhile must be eliminated.

Any peace which condoned the acts of power politics already perpetrated and which would give Herr Hitler time to prepare for his next spring would be a peace that was no peace.

This was the kind of peace Herr Hitler desired. It was peace he would not be allowed to have.

Flying boat and directed a ship to rescue the crew of the flying boat who were clinging to the wreckage.

TOUR OF AERODROME

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Sir Kinley Wood, Secretary for Air, took Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, on a tour to one of the biggest aerodromes in England and Sir John Simon talked to officers and men, inspected the cooking arrangements and watched a game of baseball introduced by Canadian fliers.

NAZIS WARN NEUTRAL SHIPPING

JOINING ALLIED CONVOYS WILL NOT PREVENT SINKINGS

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—A warning to neutral ships against joining allied convoys is given in the "Frankfurter Zeitung," quoted by the Danish paper "Folktiden," which says that the regulations in regard to the stopping and examining of ships and the ban on sinking without warning cannot comply with merchantmen protected by warships and this applies not only to enemy convoys, protected by enemy warships, but also to neutral ships joining enemy convoys.

GERMAN REGULATIONS

Neutral ships conveyed by their own warships cannot be stopped or searched according to German prize regulations, but the commander of the convoy can be asked for assurances, and detailed information in regard to his ships and cargoes.

The German Admiralty according to the paper, declared that if neutrals cared to incur trouble at the expense of conveying their own ships, this will be welcomed by the German High Command.

Sinking Of Dutch Vessel

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The captain of the Holland-America ship, which was sunk in the English Channel on Saturday morning, says that the vessel was on her way to port when there was a terrific explosion in the engine room, the wireless room was wrecked and the vessel began sinking.

The ship was on her way to Amsterdam from New York.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

A later message states that the captain of the vessel, which was the Binnendijk (8,873 tons), reports that his ship was on the way to port for examination when there was a terrific explosion.

The engine and wireless were put out of action and the ship began to sink slowly. Rocket signals were fired and these were answered.

Not long afterwards an examination ship came up and made fast to the sinking vessel and took off 41 officers and crew landing them at an English port. The Binnendijk was bound from New York to Amsterdam.

GERMAN CREW RESCUED

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Royal Air Force reconnaissance planes shot down a German flyingboat over the North Sea and directed a nearby ship to rescue the crew who had been clinging to the wreckage.

The second flyingboat made off when it saw its companion brought down. There were no British casualties.

NO CASUALTIES

A later Air Ministry communique reveals that two German flying-boats were involved, the second making off after its companion was shot down.

The British aircraft were struck by bullets, but were not damaged and there were no casualties.

NEW NAZI ORGANISATION FORMED

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—A new Nazi organization called the "People's Information Service" has been formed by former Gestapo and Black Guard chiefs to seek out "inner enemies of the Reich," according to the Berlin correspondent of the National Tende.

Branches will be formed throughout Germany and its members are pledged to give their own neighbours away if they spread anti-German propaganda.

AUSTRALIAN EXPEDITIONARY AIR FORCE

MELBOURNE, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The Australian Air Expeditionary Force will comprise 3,200 men, including ground personnel, Mr. R. G. Menzies, Australian Prime Minister, announced to-day. Group Captain H. F. Delaire will command the force for which recruiting will open immediately.

Anxiety In Sweden Over Soviet "Invitation" To Finland: Russia Wants More Air Bases

COAL GAS USED FOR MOTOR CARS IN BERLIN

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Reports from Berlin state that motor cars there are travelling about with large balloons. These balloons are filled with coal gas, which is being used instead of petrol, which private owners find it almost impossible to obtain in Germany.

French Drive Against The Communists

SEVERAL ARRESTS MADE

PARIS, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—M. Thorez, General Secretary of the former French Communist Party, and other leaders, are still at liberty although, in a series of raids on Saturday night and early on Sunday morning 26 Communist members of the French Parliament were arrested—17 in the Provinces, and 9 in Paris. Their names have not been revealed.

Legal action will be taken against all those arrested on the ground that the Workers' and Peasants' Party, which they tried to form was illegal in the reconstitution of the Communist Party.

A letter to M. Herriot, asking for an early peace, may be regarded as an intelligence with the enemy.

SOVIET SUPPLY TO GERMANY

MOSCOW, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Following an interview between M. Molotov and the German Economic Mission, an understanding has been reached, according to the Tass Agency, whereby the Soviet will immediately begin delivery of raw materials to Germany.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—It is reported that a Finnish envoy is going to Moscow. It is understood that the Soviet desires, among other things, strategic islands for bases.

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Having secured pacts with Estonia and Latvia, Russia is seriously turning her attention to Finland, which is now the main centre of interest among the Baltic states, who are anxiously awaiting developments.

FINLAND ACCEPTS

A report from Helsinki announced that Finland has accepted the Soviet "invitation" and will send a special envoy to Moscow to negotiate "questions of an economic and political character" which have been under discussion since the middle of September and has decided to send M. Paasikivi, Finnish Minister in Stockholm, to Moscow.

Russia's interests apparently include the handing over of three small Finnish islands, Hogland, Seltskier, Tyasskier, in the Gulf of Finland, to Russia.

STANDING FIRM

The Stockholm correspondent of a Copenhagen paper, the "Berlingske Tidende," thinks that Finland will concede these islands, which are valueless to her, but declares generally that Finland is standing firm and adds: "Finland is not a Baltic State, but a part of Scandinavia and she is far from being in an unhappy position strategically and has a strong defence."

Sweden is similarly watching closely and one commentator told Reuter's correspondent in Stockholm that "Germany wants nothing of us; but what about Russia if she should occupy Finland?"

MOSCOW, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The Soviet Government has ratified the Soviet-Latvian Mutual Assistance Pact.

BERLIN, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The German Trade Delegation to Russia has arrived in Moscow, announced the German Official News Agency.

INDIAN CONGRESS SUPPORTS BRITAIN

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Leaders of the Indian National Congress are meeting to-day and it is expected that they will express the willingness of Congress to co-operate with Great Britain in the War.

F.D.R. RETURNS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—President Roosevelt returned from a week-end holiday and was watching the final debate on the Neutrality Bill in Congress.

GEN. CHEUNG'S GALLANTRY

CHUNGSHAN, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—General Cheung Wai-ching was slightly wounded by bomb splinters but refuses to leave the forces still opposing the Japanese and directs operations actively.

There were several engagements with planes with severe losses to the Chinese principally due to continued plane activities and refugees still crowding to Macao.

Two-years-old Richard Mitchell was taken on a £10 three-quarters of an hour flight at Croydon in an attempt to cure his whooping cough. Richard is the son of Mr. L. Mitchell, a Johannesburg business man, in England on holiday. He was taken up to 10,000ft. and flew to Brighton and back. After the flight Mr. Mitchell said he thought Richard was looking better.

announced the German Official News Agency.

The Delegation, which is led by Dr. Schure, of the Economics Department of the Foreign Ministry, is expected to stay in Moscow for a fortnight.

REPATRIATION TREATY

RIGA, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Germany and Latvia have agreed in principle for a Repatriation Treaty following Herr Hitler's proposals.

Famous scientists are being in-

of the earth's age.

The British representatives invited are:

Sir James Jeans, author of "The Mysterious Universe", president of the British Association, 1934.

Prof. Harold Jeffreys, of St.
John's, Cambridge, author of "The Earth: Its origin, history, and physical constitution," and an authority on earthquakes.

Prof. F. A. Peneth, of Durham University, who, from a study of meteorites has set the age of the earth at about 3,000,000,000
years.

The conference, which is to be held in December and will last seven days, will be the first of its kind ever held at the Vatican.
Non-Catholics, including all the British scientists, figure promi-nently among those invited.

MEETINGS IN GARDENS

Meetings will be held in private in the Vatican Gardens, and it is expected that a report will be published later. The agenda covers the entire range of modern scientific theories of the age of the earth.

"I have received the invitation," Prof. Jeffreys said. "I don't know whether I shall be able to go, but I think I shall. It is not really my line, however. I have been more concerned with the inside of the earth."

The Pontifical Academy of Sciences has about 70 members, including Catholics and non-Catholics. Sir Charles Sherrington, past-president of the Royal Society, and Prof. Edmund Taylor
Whittaker, of Edinburgh University, are the British members.

"I understand that this will be the first of such conferences convened by the Pontifical Academy," Prof. Whittaker said. "The academy was reconstituted about three years ago by Pope Pius XI.
This appears to be the first move
under the new order."

It is understood that other scientists invited include Prof. H. A.
Russell, of Princeton, United States, Dr. H. Mineur, of the National Observatory, Paris, and holm Observatory.

SHE LED WOMEN
TO FORTUNES

The will of Mrs. Constance Pauline Hoster, founder of the secretarial college in the City of London known as "Mrs. Hoster's," revealed that she left £20,565. She died in June, aged 74.

Nearly 50 years ago, when a
"woman's place was in the home,"
Mrs. Hoster foresaw the day when educated women, properly trained, would join the leaders of business and the professions.

She also founded the Educated
Women Workers' Loan Training Fund and the Educated Women's War Emergency Training Fund.
Pupils of her college have made their names—and in some cases
their fortunes—in all walks of life.

MALARIA TAKES
HEAVY TOLLDr. Sophia Brunson's
Suggestions

Dr. Sophia Brunson, writing in the News-Topic, Lenoir, U. S. A. describes how the sinister specter of malaria is still stalking through the earth, taking its toll in disease, suffering, poverty, misery and
human life.

Every year 3,500,000 deaths are recorded from malaria. Thousands of others die of it and are buried without death certificates.

"It is obvious," she continues,
"that, up to the present time,
quinine remains the one reliable and tried remedy" that is quite safe in the hands of the laity, if given proper dosage over a reasonable length of time."

QUININE TREATMENT

She strongly emphasises the value of the short quinine treatment as indicated by the Malaria Commission of the League of Nations, consisting of a daily dose of 15 to 20 grains of quinine for 5 to 7 days.

As a preventive, the Malaria Commission recommends a daily dose of 6 grains of quina-line to be taken during the entire fever season.

On page 125 of its Report, issued in 1938, this same Malaria Commission stresses the fact that among the anti-malarial drugs,
quinine still ranks first in current practice, by reason of its clinical effectiveness and almost complete absence of toxicity, coupled with the widespread knowledge of its use and dosage.

EXCELLENT TONIC

In the same article Dr. Sophia
Brunson once more calls attention to the fact that quinine taken in therapeutic doses is an excellent tonic.

"It improves," she writes, "the appetite and imparts a sense of well being, by building up the powers of resistance of the body."

DOMINANT POSITION

"The dominant position that quinine has so long held as the sovereign remedy for malaria is due not only to its powerful therapeutic action but also to the fact that this action is associated with so little risk. Quinine is a drug of remarkable safety which may be left in the hands of almost anyone with a confident assurance that little harm is likely to follow its use or misuse. There are few drugs of similar therapeutic power of which this claim can be made."

says Dr. J. W. Field, Senior Malaria Research Officer, writing in the Bulletin from the Institute for Medical Research, Fed. Malay States, No. 2 of 1938.

Exiled German Democrats
Put War-Guilt On Hitler

"The whole weight of guilt for this monstrous crime against humanity rests on Herr Hitler and his system," declares a manifesto issued to the German people by the German Social Democratic Party, through its joint presidents, Otto Wels and Hans Vogel

The party, which is illegal in Germany, now has its headquarters in Paris.

The manifesto declares that the overthrow of Hitler is a pre-requisite of European peace and reorganisation, and urges the German people to fight for freedom and to get rid of Hitler.

The British Trade Union Congress, with two dissentients, agreed to a statement approving the declaration of war.

This stated that the situation
under the leadership of Nazi dictators in Germany had destroyed the peace and order of the world. The invasion of Poland by overwhelming forces, beginning with the pitiless bombing of open towns, revealed
the Nazi Government as the destroyer of the ordered life of mankind.

Congress placed upon the Nazi Government the supreme responsibility for the war.

Keep Off
Seas, Said
U-Boat Chief

LONDON, Sept. 25. (By Air Mail)—The choice between giving their word to keep off
the seas for the rest of the war or of remaining prisoners
in a German submarine until they could be landed and interned was the dramatic experience of the captain and officers of a British ship when they found themselves taken aboard the U-boat.

"If you break your parole, you will have to take the consequences, the German commander told us," one of the officers said yesterday.

TOWED BY SUBMARINE

With their ship sinking beneath them after the U-boat's attack the officers and men took to a boat which the submarine took in tow. The officers boarded the submarine for the dramatic interview with the commander, and
then returned to the boat.

The U-boat's crew gave them
cigarettes and 24 bottles of beer
before they were turned adrift.
Thirty-three hours later they were picked up by a Belgian vessel and have now reached safety.

U.S. TAKING
NO CHANCES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—The United States Navy
announces that a destroyer
flotilla and a Coastguard cutter are now escorting the steamer Iroquois, which the German Naval Command
warned the United States,
would be sunk near the American Coast.

Secretary For War
Interviewed

LONDON, Oct. 9 (Reuter)—Mr.
Leslie Hore Bellah, Secretary of State for War, interviewed yesterday by the London correspondent of a French newspaper, said: "In a year we shall have as many men
at the front as you."

He explained that this country
could not enroll all its men at once, as it was not possible to equip and instruct them at once.
They must proceed by sections.

He also referred to the transport to France of the British Expeditionary Force and the shipment of its equipment, which, he said, was carried out without a hitch.

Typhoon Reported Threatening Coast

The typhoon, which entered the Beak Channel yesterday morning, was reported by the Royal Observatory yesterday afternoon to be situated about 150 miles east by south of Hong Kong, moving north-west, and threatening the coast between Swatow and Amoy. The position of the disturbance was given as lat. 21° N. long. 121° E. yesterday morning, and in the afternoon the wireless stated that the typhoon was in lat. 21° N. long. 119° E., moving north-west. The local No. 1 typhoon signal was hoisted at the Royal Observatory at 4.05 p.m. yesterday.

APRIL-JUNE	31-3/4	32	—

The market was steady.
COTTON: The delay in the official reaction to Hitler's peace proposals by the Allies again aroused the talks of an European Armistice and this caused a moderate amount of hedge selling which met with limited trade demand. It is reported that a government cotton loan would become mandatory at 8.16 cents.

RUBBER: The market was heavy. Dealers were selling intermittently. Trading was quiet all day. The market lacks rallying power.

WHEAT: The delay in the official reaction to Herr Hitler's speech by the Allies, again evoking the feeling of a possibility of peace in Europe, was reflected in lower wheat prices. Domestic wheat surplus is estimated at 300,000,000 bushels, equivalent to six months' supply.

HIDES: Packers continued to offer freely. Tanners are withholding their purchases, awaiting lower offerings.

NEW YORK STOCKS: Previous close, 150.81; To-day's close, 149.60; Change off, 1.01.

INTERESTING PROPOSALS MADE AT LAWN BOWLS COUNCIL MEETING

Aitkenhead Shield Match To Be Decided Oct. 28

A meeting was held yesterday evening at the Board Room of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. of the Council of the Hongkong Lawn Bowls Association, when several interesting proposals were put forward, among these being the registration of six First Division players from every Club participating in the First Division League, the appointment of a special sub-committee to revise the rules governing the Lawn Bowls League, and the award of badges to Interceptors.

The President of the Association, Dr. J. T. Smalley, was in the chair, and those present were Messrs. R. F. Phillips (Hon. Secretary), C. H. Basto, V. Chittenden, J. Deacon, J. C. Gill, A. W. Grimmitt, A. Kern, W. Mail, J. McCutcheon, W. Melrose, U. M. Omar, J. V. Ramsey, S. M. Rumjahn, J. Russell and J. N. Wong.

Dr. Smalley congratulated the Interceptor team that had represented Hongkong against Shanghai. Selectors nominated for the several teams to contest the Cuthbert International Shield were proposed as follows:—

Scotland, J. C. Brown; England, B. W. Bradbury; Portugal, C. H. Basto; India, U. M. Omar; Ireland, W. Mulcahy; Wales, F. J. Jones; Philippines, V. N. Atienza; Switzerland, C. S. Rossetti; Malaya, M. R. Abbas; Australia, E. C. Fincher; China, J. Pau.

DEBATE ON MATCH

There was some debate on the Craigengower Civil Service C.C. match in the Second Division League that was not played owing to the wet state of the Craigengower green. Mr. Grimmitt, for Civil Service, contended that no adequate notice had been given the Civil Service players who had all turned up for the game. Mr. Omar read a letter addressed by him to the Civil Service C.C. apologising for the lack of notice and explaining that there had been not time enough to give such notice.

Mr. J. Russell proposed that the game be considered as having been postponed, and it was put to the meeting by the Chairman and passed that the game would be played off on the Craigengower green this Saturday.

H.K. v. KOWLOON

The Aitkenhead Shield match between Hongkong and Kowloon will be played at the Kowloon Cricket Club on Saturday, Oct. 28. Mr. T. E. Robson was nominated Captain of the Kowloon side, and Mr.

A. W. Grimmitt is to lead Hongkong. Messrs. Robson, Chittenden and Basto were appointed to select the Kowloon team and Messrs. Grimmitt, Russell and A. Chalmers to select the Hongkong team.

ANNUAL DINNER

Saturday, November 4, was the date set for the dinner to the Interceptor side and the annual distribution of prizes. Dr. Smalley told the meeting that His Excellency the Governor particularly wished to come to this dinner, and it was agreed that date decided on would be provisional upon His Excellency's being able to attend. It was decided the dinner would be held at the Hongkong Hotel Roor Garden.

The First Division play-off between Kowloon Dock Recreation Club and Club de Recreio "B", the loser to be relegated to the Second Division, will be at the Kowloon Football Club on Saturday, Oct. 21. Mr. Russell proposed that a rule be passed that no club would be permitted to have more than one team in the same division of the league in any season. This would obviate the probability of three teams from one club competing in the same division.

NEW RULE SUGGESTED

Mr. Kern seconded Mr. Russell's proposal, suggesting also a new rule that a limit of time be set where in a club could give notice of the unit state of its greens for a league game.

Mr. Chittenden proposed the registration of First Division players, whereby every club playing in the First Division would have to register at least six players, who would be allowed by league rules to play only in that division.

The proposal for the election of the special sub-committee to revise the rules was put to the meeting and carried.

Towards the close of the meeting, Mr. Kern proposed that the Association award badges to Interceptor players, a practice which had been discontinued for some years. The proposal was carried.

It was decided the allotment towards the purchase of League trophies and Championship prizes would be the same as last year. The meeting closed with a proposal by the Chairman that a vote of thanks be accorded Messrs. Jardine, Matheson for the use of the Board Room.

CONGRATULATIONS ON NORTH HUNAN VICTORY

CHANGSHA, Oct. 9 (Central).—Numerous telegrams from various military commanders have been received at the headquarters of the Commander-in-Chief of the North Hunan front, whose name is not disclosed, congratulating him for the brilliant victory in North Hunan.

The telegrams include those from Generals Li Tsung-jen, Cheng Chien, Li Ping-shan, Chiang Ting-wen, Liu Shih, Yu Han-mou, Li Hon-wan, Huang Shao-hsiung and many others.

In North Kiangsi, celebrations of the victory will be combined with the Double Tenth festivities tomorrow, when a gigantic mass meeting will be held.

NATIONAL DAY CELEBRATIONS

Chinese residents in Hongkong will join their compatriots in China to celebrate the Chinese National Day to-day.

All Chinese business firms, banks and schools will declare a holiday. A meeting in celebration of the occasion will be held at the Queen's Theatre at 9.30 o'clock this morning. Another meeting, conducted by the five leading Chinese women's organisations here, will take place at the football ground at Caroline Hill.

The fund-raising campaign for war relief purposes by flag-selling will also be intensified to-day.

POLAND'S NEW PRESIDENT

PARIS, Oct. 9 (Reuter).—The new President of the Polish Republic, who is in Paris, has officially informed M. Lebrun, the French President, of his accession to the post.

CHINA WAR NEWS

FURTHER SUCCESSES

CHANGSHA, Oct. 9 (Central).—Chinese forces on the North Hunan Front have crossed the Stutiang River by its upper stretch east of the railway in hot pursuit of remnant Japanese troops at Huanganshih and Taolin, south-east of Yoyang.

On the Hunan-Hupeh highway, the Chinese troops have recaptured Nankiangkiao and Shangtasheh, two major positions north-east of Sinsiang.

Civilian population is giving effective support to the Chinese forces in harassing the Japanese retreat and cutting their rear. The people threw a net of snipers on the way of the Japanese withdrawal and in one instance "bagg" several hundred Japanese killed and wounded.

South of Nankiang, midway between Pingkiang and Tungcheng near the Hupeh border, remnant Japanese have been entirely cleared.

JAPANESE RETREAT

KAOKAN, Oct. 9 (Central).—Following the recapture of Kihuenyang, west of Fengshan, in North Kiangsi, Chinese forces on the North Kiangsi front continued their attacks on the north bank of the Shangfu River and by yesterday morning have driven the Japanese to Yehcheng, north-east of Shangfu. In the artillery barrage of the subsequent attack, the Chinese estimated to have slain more than 500 Japanese.

KWELIN BOMBED

KWELIN, Oct. 9 (Central).—The south-western outskirts of Kwelin were yesterday raided by eight Japanese planes which rained over 700 high explosives.

The raiders later flew over southwestern Hunan but returned shortly afterwards in reconnaissance.

Lungchow, near the French Indo-China border, and Wuning, in Central Kwangsi, were also raided respectively by seven and 18 Japanese aircraft.

JAPANESE DRIVES

HINGTSEI, SHENSI, Oct. 9 (Central).—A Japanese force of about 2,000 men from Hellingkwan, north-west of Linfen, in Shansi, captured Hwalochien, near Hellingkwan, in a fierce drive on Saturday. Another force in the meantime commenced a thrust south-westward.

Synchronising with this drive, Japanese units at Fengcheng and Sinkiang are reported to be pushing north-westward. The immediate objective of the advances is believed to be Siangning, south-east of Kihien.

Serious clashes are reported to be taking place at Kwangwang-miao, Chienyao-shang and the vicinity.

A Japanese column striking at Kihien apparently to threaten the Chinese rear is being engaged by the Chinese at Chenstow.

CHINESE PRESS VIEWS

The Chinese success in North Hunan has solidified the foundation for a final victory, declares the "China Times" in an editorial yesterday.

It has dashed to the ground the Japanese dreams of controlling wholly the Canton-Hankow Railway, of occupying western and southern Hunan, in order to menace Kwangsi and Kwelchow, and of heralding the formation of a new puppet regime under Wang Ching-wai.

The paper predicts that, after suffering this smashing defeat, the Japanese will be too weak to engage the Chinese in another great battle in the future.

The "Wah Kin Yat Po" says that the Chinese victory indicates the growing strength of the Chinese army.

The paper praises the fact that the Chinese took the offensive, instead of keeping in the defensive as on previous occasions in the Changsha battle, and expresses the hope that henceforth they will retain their initiative.

VISITORS CAN CAUSE HEADACHES

B.M.A. DOCTORS SAY SO

A professor told doctors at the British Medical Association conference at Aberdeen that he cured his own headaches simply by relaxing the muscles of his face.

The most usual causes of headaches, it was declared, were not physical disorders, but—

Dislike of other people;
Unwanted visitors;
Loud voices;
Insults;
"Hangovers";
Depression;
Worry, and Insomnia.

They dealt with the "importance of headaches as an early symptom of mental and nervous disorders," and Dr. Desmond Carran, Wimpole-street specialist, said:

"The head is the seat of our most important sense organs, on whose integrity depend our mental reactions. Threats to our personality result in head discomfort."

PROFESSOR RELAXES

"The arrival of an unwanted visitor or the anticipation of an unpleasant task may often produce a functional headache."

He catalogued the different types of headache, and added, "One of my patients once explained that his 'hangover' headache was quite different from his ordinary one."

Prof. G. W. Pickering, of London, told them about his own headaches—"If I go home with one after a tiring day's work, I relax the muscles of facial expression and the pain disappears in a few minutes," he said.
